Leave San José accompanied by a bilingual naturalist guide. After getting through the Braulio Carrillo National Park, we will stop for a Costa Rican typical breakfast. Then, we will get-off the bus and embark in the most exciting leg of this excursion. The trip aboard the boat in the jungle through the canals of the world-renowned Tortuguero National Park. Arriving at noon we will enjoy a delicious regional lunch. After lunch we will hike through the rain forest to see the tropical rain forest, then a trip on boat through the through the Tortuguero National Park. There are abundant diversity of exotic birds such as toucans and herons; there are also crocodiles, turtles, and numerous butterflies, including the astonishing Blue Morpho Butterfly that the boat trip allows the opportunity to watch them very closely.

Finally, when the afternoon falls we return by the San Jose full of memories and pictures of this fabulous experience in the world-renowned Tortuguero canals.
