Manuel Antonio National Park is located on the Pacific Coast of Costa Rica in the province of Puntarenas, this park was chosen by Forbes the magazine in 2011 among the 12 most beautiful parks of the world.

We will begin our trip toward our route traversing the mountains that border the central valley, we will use route 27 where following will take the coastal South route, on the way we will stop to have a delicious Costa Rican breakfast.

We will start by hiking in the cloud forest through natural trail in the park to reach the beach where you can swim or walk in the trails, that will allow us to see the abundant flora and fauna, specially several monkey species, such as the Titi [squirrel monkey], the white-headed capuchin, howling monkey, raccoon, coatimundis, iguanas, sloths, and all kinds of exotic birds, also. Then, after having enjoyed the national park we will return to the restaurant where a delicious lunch awaits us before returning to the city.
