The Rain Forest Aerial Tram – Caribbean is a Private Reserve of 475-hectares.

The property shares a boundary of 10 Km with the Braulio Carrillo National Park and becomes a buffer zone between the park and the agriculture production land. Upon arrival you are greeted by the personnel, who will invite you to board the transportation that will take you from the reception to a video hall in the visitors' area. Before, a brief stop will be taken halfway to enjoy the panoramic views from the hanging bridge and the viewpoint the Broccoli Tree.

After the presentation of a short video about the park the visitors are guided to the Aerial Tram boarding area where the main purpose is to show visitors the jungle different levels, including the tree canopy or treetops. In the trails you can appreciate the heart of the rain forest; where a great diversity of plant species and animals live. Therefore, the hike through the trails is an excellent combination to know and appreciate the rain forest ground up to the treetops.
